

What class formats are offered at CBTS?

1 | Live Semester Classes

Three to four live semester classes are held each fall & spring semester. They are facilitated online via conferencing software so that students can interact directly with the professor. All Biblical Languages course are taught in this format.

2 | Live Modular Classes

Modular courses are held 3 times a year, usually in Owensboro, KY. These present the student with an opportunity to experience a live classroom environment including direct interaction with professors and fellow students.

3 | Self Paced Classes

Live courses are all recorded and can be taken at any time on our online campus CBTS Pathway. These courses can be started at any time and due dates are “self-paced,” but students must complete the course within the time frame allotted for that course.
